

Blue Porcelain

Blue and white porcelain sign. Found by Bob Schroth at Indiana Advertising show. Some believe "This Way Out" signs may have been used in subways, and that to be a bona fide mining sign, it should read "Too Surface". However a reprint of mining signs in a M.S.A. catalog shows the signs below.

Baldwin Carbide Containers

From a Mine and Smelter Supply Co. catalog, a page from Baldwin accessories identifies these two unmarked containers as Baldwin products. (Jim Lackey)
